The General Conference of the International Labour Organisation,

Having been convened at Geneva by the Governing Body of the International Labour Office, and having met in its Forty-eighth Session on 17 June 1964, and

Having decided upon the adoption of certain proposals with regard to benefits in the case of industrial accidents and occupational diseases, which is the fifth item on the agenda of the session, and

Having determined that these proposals shall take the form of an international Convention, adopts the eighth day of July of the year one thousand nine hundred and sixty-four, the following Convention, which may be cited as the Employment Injury Benefits Convention, 1964:

Article 1

In this Convention--

(a) the term legislation includes any social security rules as well as laws and regulations;

(b) the term prescribe means determined by or in virtue of national legislation;

(c) the term industrial undertaking includes all undertakings in the following branches of economic activity: mining and quarrying; manufacturing; construction; electricity, gas, water and sanitary services; and transport, storage and communication;

(d) the term dependent refers to a state of dependency which is presumed to exist in prescribed cases;

(e) the term dependent child covers--

(i) a child under school-leaving age or under 15 years of age, whichever is the higher, and
